TUI Germany presents the “TUI Umwelt Champion” to the 4 Seaside hotels on the Canary Islands

Maspalomas, 25.10.11.- On Monday the 24th of October the four hotels belonging to the Seaside Hotel chain collected the “Tui Umwelt Champion” award as recognition of their commitment to caring for the environment.

The winning hotels on Gran Canaria, the Seaside Grand Hotel ResidenciaGL, Seaside Palm Beach* and Seaside Sandy Beach were personally presented with their respective awards by the various representatives of TUI Spain on the island of Gran Canaria. The elegant ceremony took place in the gardens of the Seaside Palm Beach*, which proved to be the perfect setting for the award ceremony.

Accompanied by Mr. Theo Gerlach, the proprietor of Seaside Hotels, guests celebrated receiving these distinguished awards by making a toast with a glass of cava together with a selection of delicious canapés specially prepared for this momentous occasion.

On Lanzarote, the prized award was presented to the General Manager of the hotel Seaside Los Jameos Playa by the representative of Tui services on the island.

The “TUI Umwelt Champion” award reflects the client’s satisfaction with the measures being adopted by the hotels to protect the environment. Receiving these awards has been a great satisfaction to the Gerlach family as they have to all the Seaside employees on the Canary Islands.
